

Homework

Weather Vocabulary

A. Underline the correct word in each sentence.

1. There was quite a lot of fog / flood this morning, which made it difficult to see.
2. It was a lovely, clear / cloudy morning, without a cloud in the sky.
3. The thunderstorm was accompanied by bright flashes of hail / lightning.
4. The gentle breeze / tornado was pleasant and provided welcome relief from the heat.
5. It's a bit sunny / chilly today. I'd take a jumper if I were you.

B. Complete the sentences using the correct words.

thermometer	mild	drought	boiling	avalanche
flood	heatwave	temperature	tornado	season

1. Days after the, many parts of the village were still submerged in water.
2. The on the wall says it's 14 degrees right now.
3. The long absence of rain in the region resulted in a devastating
4. Winters are quite here. It never gets too cold, and we rarely have storms.
5. Many small homes and vehicles were blown away during the
6. A thermometer is a device that is used to measure
7. It's absolutely today! I've never felt so hot.
8. I rarely left the house during the, as it was too hot to go outside.
9. Autumn is my favourite because I love the colourful leaves.
10. The left the skiers buried in the snow.

C. Match the sentence halves with their correct endings, underlining the correct words.

1. According to the weather a. blizzard / hail.
2. The temperature dropped to minus 20 b. frostbite / fog after a week in the bitter cold.
3. My car was covered in tiny balls of c. degrees / weather last night. It was very cold.
4. Maria slipped on the d. forecast / heatwave, it's going to rain tonight.
5. The climber was suffering from e. icy / cloudy pavement and broke her leg.

More on this topic at: eclub.to/wv

Homework answers

Weather Vocabulary

Exercise A

1. fog
2. clear
3. lightning
4. breeze
5. chilly

Exercise B

1. flood
2. thermometer
3. drought
4. mild
5. tornado
6. temperature
7. boiling
8. heatwave
9. season
10. avalanche

Exercise C

1. d, forecast
2. c, degrees
3. a, hail
4. e, icy
5. b, frostbite